Boy Scout Radio Series Starts on Campus Station

The Clarkson-Potsdam State Teachers College campus radio station, WNTC, introduced Monday evening a new series of broadcasts entitled "Aladdin's Lamp." The broadcasts are short skits dealing with the Boy Scouts of America. They are designed to be interesting to both youthful and adult listening audience.

Most of the talent is supplied by members of Boy Scout Troop 18 of Potsdam. The show will continue to be presented each onday evening at 7:15 p.m. over WNTC, 640 on the dial.
